According to Forbes Magazine, “The Adult Coloring Craze Continues and There is No End in Sight”. The phenomenon shows no signs of slowing down. Many colorists report that stress reduction, calmness and relaxation are what drew them to coloring. Other colorists like the creativity and the memories of coloring during their childhood.

Tourists who visit the Hocking Hills and hike three popular state parks in the area can go back to their cabins and color those pages in “Get Back to Nature”. Coloring parties with friends and family are popular pastimes now and they are a great idea and a fun activity to plan during a staycation or getaway in the beautiful Hocking Hills area. Colorists now have a new way to enjoy the beauty that surrounds them when they visit the Hocking Hills.

So to all the colorists out there – don’t forget to pack your colored pencils when you come to the Hocking Hills to enjoy the outdoors and get back to nature.
